[XXth Year.] THURSDAY, September 6, 1764. [N°. 1009.]

L O N D O N, May 26.

AMONG the many Priſoners now in a certain Goal Eaſtward, there is a poor Taylor for Two Guineas and a Half (which was half what he owed to the World when impriſoned) but rather than allow him his Liberty to get Bread for himſelf, Wife, and Family, his hard-hearted Creditor has already paid him 9 l. in Groats for his Maintenance. Quære, Has his Creditor any Love or Compaſſion for his Fellow-Creatures, or to his own Intereſt? Or is not Pride and Revenge his predominant Paſſion?

Before the unfortunate Mr. Sampſon received Judgment, he addreſſed the Court as follows:

"My LORDS,

"After having voluntarily pleaded Guilty, I humbly wait to receive Sentence of the Law. Great as my Crime is, his Majeſty's Mercy is ſtill greater; and if in my paſt Conduct any Circumſtances have happily happened, by which I have (under GOD) been the Means of ſaving the Lives of any of his Majeſty's Subjects (and with Truth I can ſay that I have ſaved above 200 from periſhing) I hope thoſe Circumſtances will, in ſome Meaſure, recommend me, a truly ſincere Penitent, to his Royal Mercy; and if it ſhall be his gracious Pleaſure to ſave that forfeited Life, which before had been the Means of ſaving many others, the Remainder of it ſhall be ſpent in a Manner becoming the Situation, of one ſenſible of that ineſtimable Bleſſing. My Lords, I applied to the Court laſt Seſſions to put off my Trial, in order that I might be able to lay many favourable Circumſtances before this Court, that might incline your Lordſhips to Mercy; but, being adviſed that thoſe Circumſtances were more proper to be laid before his Royal Majeſty, I confeſſed that Guilt, which in Conſcience I could not deny. Your Lordſhips are Men, you feel as Men, and, perhaps, may now feel Compaſſion for an unhappy Youth truly penitent, and not yet Twenty Years of Age. Permit me, my Lords, to add, that if your Lordſhips, who are now proceeding according to ſtrict Law, ſhall be pleaſed to render me any compaſſionate Services, that Obligation to myſelf and my worthy Relations (now involved in my Sufferings, but not in my Guilt) will never be forgotten. But my Lords, if after all, the bitter Cup of Juſtice is not to be removed from me, I humbly ſubmit to thy Will, O GOD, in whom I truſt."

On Sunday Night, at near Eleven o'Clock, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, diſpatched from the Secretary of State's Office, came to Newgate, and brought a Reſpite, during the King's Pleaſure, for Michael Sampſon, who on his own Confeſſion was convicted of Forgery, and received Sentence of Death, at the laſt Seſſion at the Old Bailey, and was one included in the Death Warrant, to ſuffer with the other ſeven Malefactors Tomorrow. This Joyful News was immediately reported to the unfortunate Youth, (who was then at his Devotions) and as ſoon as he could recover himſelf from the Extacy of Joy for his Deliverance, he glorified GOD, bleſſed his moſt Gracious Majeſty, and prayed for his worthy, humane, and generous Friends.

☞ This Perſon was the principal Means of ſaving the Crews of two Veſſels, the one bound to Ireland, where he went to ſettle Buſineſs; the other to England on his Return, when the Commander of each had given up all Hopes of ſaving Ship, Cargo, or Paſſengers.

B O S T O N, Auguſt 20.

In the Antigua Gazette of the 4th of July, is the following intereſting Article of Intelligence, which plainly evinces the Deſigns of our Weſt-India Friends to ſubvert our Diſtillers in New-England, and to promote their own, which unleſs timely remonſtrated againſt in Parliament, will moſt aſſuredly take Place, viz.——"That in a late Aſſembly of the Governor and Council of the Iſland of Jamaica, a Motion was made and approved, to prefer a Memorial to the Britiſh Parliament, ſetting forth, that in the preſent declining State of the Sugar-Iſlands, nothing could tend more effectually to reſtore the Weſt-India Trade from ruin, than putting a ſtop to the farther Diſtillation of Rum in the Britiſh Colonies of North-America, commonly called New-England Rum; which, together with large Quantities imported from the French Iſlands, has ſo ſunk the Demand for that Produce, as to threaten a total Diſſolution to the whole Trade."

Extract of a Letter from Jamaica.

"I am ſorry to tell you, that by the late Orders received here for ſwearing in the Officers of the Men of War to be Cuſtom Houſe Officers, and by a Seiſure or two made in Conſequence thereof, the Spaniards are ſo terrified, that they will not run the Riſk of bringing hither either Money or Mules to traffic with us; ſo that a Piſtole is now rarely to be met with; and, in a very ſhort Time, this Iſland, which always abounded with Spaniſh Coin, and remitted ſuch Quantities of it to England, will have no other Currency than Paper Money: The Spaniards will now be ſupplied with Linens, Woollens, Silks, Cutlery, &c. from the French and Dutch Territories, who will probably know how to ſet a true Value on this Branch of Trade, and take Care to keep it. We are quite at a Loſs to know what Harm Spaniſh Money ever did in England; or where is the Miſchief to our Mother Country, in ſupplying the Spaniards with the Manufactures of Great-Britain."

N E W P O R T, Auguſt 20.

It is with Pleaſure we hear ſome of the principal Merchants in Boſton have come into a Reſolution to curtail many Superfluities in Dreſs; and that upwards of fifty have already ſigned a certain Agreement for that Purpoſe. Lace, Ruffles, &c. are to be entirely laid aſide: No Engliſh Cloths to be purchaſed but at a fixed Price; the uſual Manner of expreſſing their Regard and Sorrow for a deceaſed Friend or Relative, by covering themſelves in Black, is alſo in the Liſt of Superfluities, and no Part thereof but the Crape in the Hat is retained; inſtead of which, a Piece of Crape is to be tied upon the Arm, after the Manner of the military Gentlemen.

N E W - Y O R K, Auguſt 27.

Two Engliſh Men of War are gone from Jamaica for Turk's-Iſland, to deſtroy the Works lately erected there by the French.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Sloſſer, dated Auguſt 12, 1764.

"The Morning of the 8th inſt. the Army went off from hence; and in the Evening arrived at Fort Erie, which is on the North Shore, about two Miles above the Rapids, at the Entrance of the Lake. The 9th they ſet out about 10 o'Clock, and proceeded along the North Shore about 6 Miles, where they remained all Night, waiting for the 17th Regiment, which was detained by having loſt ſome of their Boats in going up the Rapids. Early on the Morning of the 10th, they ſtood acroſs the Lake to the South Shore. I left Fort Erie the ſame Day at 10 o'Clock, ſince which Time have heard nothing from them; though we have Reaſon to think they are a conſiderable Way on their Journey, the Weather having been pretty favourable ſince they went off.

"The Schooners Victory and Boſton, ſailed from Fort Erie, for Detroit, the 9th, in the Night; the two others are expected in every Day. I purpoſe to proceed with them to Detroit, and hope to arrive there as ſoon as the Army."

P H I L A D E L P H I A, Auguſt 30.

On the 18th Inſtant two Men were taken up at Elizabeth-Town, and committed to Goal there, for paſſing a Number of Counterfeit TWENTY SHILLING BILLS of this Province. One of them goes by the Name of Harman Roſecrans, the other by that of John Hannah; they had paid for three Horſes in theſe Counterfeit Bills; are dated May 1, 1760. [Deſcribed in the Maryland Gazette of the 26th of July laſt.]

Mr. Hugh Munro, of the Iſland of St. George, one of the Weſtern Iſlands, acquaints his Correſpondent here, in a Letter of the 30th of June, that there was brought from the North Side of that Iſland a Brig of about 120 Tons, deſerted by her Crew, and by what had appeared of the Cargo, it conſiſted of Boards, a few Hogſhead Staves, ſome ſmall Beams and Shingles upon her Deck, and in the Hold, and ſuppoſed to be bound to the Leeward Iſlands; her Foremaſt ſprung; her Main-maſt cut about 5 Feet above the Board; the Rudder torn out of the Irons.—The Veſſel has a Mermaid Head, and a new Anchor never ſtocked (the only one found on board) marked T D 94. Weight 7. 0. 14. her two Pumps, fore and aft, in a Line cloſe by the Main maſt; and that it appeared, from many Circumſtances, that the People had been taken out at Sea by another Veſſel.—Mr. Munro offers to act in Behalf of the Owners, provided they tranſmit him a Power of Attorney, with ſufficient Proofs of their Property.

Extract of a Letter from Niagara, July 26.

"Proviſions are iſſued out this Day for 1717 Indians, and more daily coming in."

Extract of a Letter from Fort Ontario, Auguſt 7.

"I ſailed from Niagara Yeſterday, in Company with Sir William Johnſon, who has ſettled Matters with the different Tribes of Indians to his Satisfaction, tho' not a Man of the Delawares or Shawaneſe came near him; but he received a Letter from them, in which they told him, that as the other Nations had condeſcended to make Peace, they would likewiſe agree, out of Pity to their Brethren the Engliſh, and not from any Fear they were under from them, for in that Reſpect they deſpiſed them.——There are between 3 and 400 Indians gone with Colonel Bradſtreet, who threaten theſe haughty People.——The Letter from the Indians to Sir William, was wrote by Major Smallman, who is a Priſoner with them."

Our Advices from the Frontiers are as follow, viz.

Carliſle, Auguſt 13. Laſt Friday the Troops marched from this Place, having with them a large Number of Waggons and Pack-horſes, with Ammunition, Proviſion, &c.——An Indian was ſeen and fired at on Saturday, about Ten or twelve Miles above Shippenſburgh, who, it is thought, was there as a Spy, watching the Road.——We have had no Miſchief done ſince that in July.——The Woman ſuppoſed, ſome time ago, to be carried off by the Indians, was found murdered in a Thicket, a little Way from where they took her.——The Lad found alive in the School, and ſaid to be ſince dead, is, we are informed, yet alive, and in a likely Way to recover.

Auguſt 14. By a young Man from Conococheague, we are juſt now informed, that Indians are ſeen in that Settlement almoſt every Day; and that on Friday laſt, two Men were purſued by four of them, near Juſtice M'Dowell's, and with great Difficulty eſcaped.

Auguſt 17. Some time laſt Week three Indians were ſeen in the upper Part of Marſh Creek, York County, when one Hugh Dinwiddie fired at, and wounded one of them, of which Wound, we hear, he has ſince been found dead.——A young Woman, Daughter of one James Dyſart, going home from Sermon at the Big Spring, laſt Sunday, about 10 or 12 Miles from hence, was met with, murdered, ſcalped, and left naked, by the Enemy.——This has alarmed that Settlement, who were chiefly gone home to their Places, and will, we are afraid, make many again fly; eſpecially as there are ſo many Accounts of Indians being ſeen in ſmall Parties almoſt every Day, in one Part or other of the County.——A Number of young Men from the upper Part of this County, are forming a Company, to go out as Volunteers with Colonel Bouquet; and another Company is expected to come from the Eaſt Side of the River.

Auguſt 18. The main Body of the Army left Loudoun about the Middle of this Week; the Train is to be there this Night.

Auguſt 22. A Fellow was taken near Shippenſburgh, ſuppoſed to be a French Spy, and committed to Goal.

Auguſt 23. The above mentioned Fellow was examined by Colonel Armſtrong, and ſome other Magiſtrates, and ſent, under a proper Guard, to Colonel Bouquet.
